THE CYPRUS INSTITUTE OF NEUROLOGY & GENETICS

USEFUL INFORMATION FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Further to the approvals received from the relevant authorities, as of September 2022, the Cyprus School of Molecular Medicine (CSMM), will undergo a change in name and will be known as the postgraduate School of The Cyprus Institute of Neurology & Genetics. All programmes and operational information will remain the same. All degrees from September 2022 onwards, will be issued under the name "The Cyprus Institute of Neurology & Genetics".

STUDENT VISA AND REQUIREMENTS

This handbook is prepared to provide useful Information and answer questions about the Student Visa and requirements. The CING Education Office Team can provide additional guidance if needed.

Every student should be in possession of the relevant permit issued by the Cyprus Civil Archive and Migration Department. The student visa is issued towards an application from a specific educational institution. As a result of this in the event that an international student decides to move from one educational institution to another, within Cyprus, he/she must then obtain a new residence permit.

Visas are not required for European Union (E.U.) students.

International students from non EU countries need a student visa for entry to Cyprus. Student visas are issued only to full-time international students. A full-time student is one who is reg-istered for a minimum of 30 credits in a semester. Student visas can be issued either by an Embassy/ High Commission/ Consulate of the Republic of Cyprus in the candidate's home country or by the Cyprus Civil Archive and Migration Authorities.

Nationals of countries where an Embassy / Consulate of the Republic of Cyprus is available in residency should submit to the Education Office (the latest by 23rd of July) the following documents in order to obtain, on their behalf, a preliminary approval for them to be interviewed at the Embassy / Consulate of the Republic of Cyprus, in their home country (detailed information concerning Cyprus's Embassies and High Commissions abroad can be obtained from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs):

(Refer to "Attestation/Certification process of documents" section)

It is advised that the documents should be sent by a Courier Service to ensure that they will be safely delivered to the Education Office at the very latest by 23rd of July.
